

Mary

Spiritualized

Mary, take your big brown eyes and look away
You're searching in vain
Mary, take your red heart and turn around
They'll make you insane You know you're getting beat in the morning
Spend the night on the tiles
You know you're only searching for glory
But now you've gone and missed it by miles Mary, take your healing hands and turn around
There's nothin to say
Mary, take your words of love and tear 'em out
They're starting to fade You know you're gonna hurt in the morning
Spend the night all alone
You know you're only searching for glory
But now you've gotta face it alone You know you're gonna hurt in the morning Spend the night pon the toles
You know you're olyu searching for gloryu
But now you've gone and missed it by miles Mary, you know this life's so sweet
That the stuff that ain't got dead?
Mary you know we both have dreams
But you're the one who's gotta live 'em instead Oh Mary, Mary, Mary... (rpt to fade)
