Am I Loud Enough

Bis

I'm stronger now, I've been through everything and I won't go down
Nothing is bigger than me, I feel empowered
I'm shouting louder, now can you hear the sound
Just when you're not lookingSome things have changed?
They've not, you're looking back
I fought, I'm taller now
You're not, I've got you now, good shotI know there's nothing better
There's none more super tough
Yeah, yeah, I've got the power
But am I loud enough?This is the last time that I'll say my name
(Say my name)
I made mistakes but I am not ashamed
(Not ashamed)Now am I loud enough? Do ya hear my name
(Hear my name)
I made mistakes but I am not ashamed
(Not ashamed)I've come this far, feels like I'm driving in a bullet proof car
I'm going somewhere fast and that's where you are
Tell you my name and tell you that this is war
Just when you're not lookingI'm screaming loud, pierced head
Should break your bones instead
Say the same words they're kept
You thought I'd gone, not yetI know there's nothing better
There's none more super tough
Yeah, yeah, I've got the power
But am I loud enough?
Am I loud enough?You've got to make your own names and in your own way
