

Ready

Third Day

Im ready for the winds to change
Im ready for a brighter day
Im ready for the sun to shine down on meIm waiting for a song to sing
Im looking for a brand new thing
Im ready now to live a life that I believeI want the world to turn because of love
And mercy to find each of us
Doing what we can to just believe, yeahI want the world to know that Youre the One
Who fills me up and gives me hope
And brings about this change thats in meOh yeah, Im ready, yeah
You know Im ready nowIm ready for the truth to be Something that can set us free
Does anybody still believe well make it through?Im ready now to take a stand
To live life for more than myself
Tell me now, my friend, are you ready, tooI want the world to turn because of love
And mercy to find each of us
Doing what we can to just believe, yeahI want the world to know that Youre the One
Who fills me up and gives me hope
And brings about this change thats in meOh yeah, Im ready, yeah
You know Im ready nowI cant sit around waiting for it all to change
Its gonna take every single one of us doing what we can Theres lots of fighting in this world but theres so much loving too
So take my hand, Im ready now for YouI want the world to turn because of love
And mercy to find each of us
Doing what we can to just believe, yeahI want the world to know that Youre the One
Who fills me up and gives me hope
And brings about this change thats in meOh yeah, Im ready, yeah
You know that Im ready, yeah, yeahLord knows Im ready
You know Im ready, oh yeah, yeahIm ready for the winds to change
Im ready for a brighter day
