

Driven By Suffering

Hatebreed

Every second breathes life into reason for dying
Our own ignorance will only stunt our final will to live
Bound and gagged, I feel forced back in a losing race
I've been stepped on and passed by
But I have enough hope to keep fighting All of my life, all of my pain
Driven by suffering
All of my life, all of my pain
Driven by suffering Every single choice I must make
Driven by suffering
Every single choice I must make
Driven by suffering Suffering
