Driven By Suffering

Hatebreed

Every second breathes life into reason for dying
Our own ignorance will only stunt our final will to live
Bound and gagged, I feel forced back in a losing race
I've been stepped on and passed by
But I have enough hope to keep fightingAll of my life, all of my pain
Driven by suffering
All of my life, all of my pain
Driven by sufferingEvery single choice I must make
Driven by suffering
Every single choice I must make
Driven by sufferingSuffering
