

Lilith Immaculate

Cradle Of Filth

Church bells resounded like judgment day
As they were making love
In the rain swept graveyard
She fucked him hard, silhouetted by flame
A monsoon tigress set upon prey
Fall for the love of me
Crawl for the love of me
Drool for the love of my virulent sway
I grow more master, the faster the days
Lilith immaculate
This delectable reaper
Her eyes were profound
Drawing him in deeper
Until he was drowned
Hurled on the shore
Of the world underground
Lilith immaculate
Mortal kind, a morbid wine
For this dark moon goddess
And freed to stretch her claws
This beautiful whore
Would be brutally honest
Tortuous one, taboos undone
A glittering star on a sea of myriad waves
And a thickening mist, a seductress
Leading lovesick hearts astray
Lilith
In the throes of orgasm
She bucked and he broke
At the height of the storm
The chaos they'd smote
Burning behind her
In arabesque smoke
Framed a vision transformed
As she sucked from his throat
Victoria smiled, her now golden eyes
Possessed a regal bearing
Of omnipotent power
From wet lips to her smoldering thighs

Her beauty perfected and her will agonized

Fall for the love of me

Crawl for the love of me

Drool for the love of my virulent sway

I grow more master, the faster the days

Lilith Immaculate

With dread single purpose

Her mind told him stay

She strode through the fire

Desire aflame

She murdered the nuns

In such horrible ways

Lilith Immaculate

That night we lay entwined on hay

Inside a soldier's barn

Her panting breath an opiate

As in her bolder grasp

I caught the scent of desert sands

The holy lands, the fall of reason

But only when I smelt the blood

Did I fear her colder hand

I am darkness, I am sin

The Queen of lust invited in

Reborn at last to cast my

Fecund shadow on this world

You shall worship me enslaved

For many lovers shall I crave

And in return, I'll gladly pave

Your psycho path with pearls

For I have been grating

And waiting so long to find

The most perfect hostess, close to me

Whose thin-ice troubled mind

Was like a cracked, black ornate mirror

To slip right through in time

When at last I wore Harmonia's necklace

The cursed twin serpents mine

Tortuous one, debauchery won

The attention of Emperors, Princes and Tsars

For the toll of her kiss, no soul could dismiss

The advance of her throne from afar

This English rose with traits of those

Who graced the harems of the east

Adorned with thorns, she raised the horns

And scarlet hems to wasted priests
Drool for the love of my virulent sway

Lilith Immaculate
This delectable reaper
Her eyes were profound
They drew him in deeper
Until he was drowned
Hurled on the shore

Lilith Immaculate

Lilith Immaculate
The flutes and sweet wine
Of her voice anodyne
Her power was growing
Every hour malign
The truth, Lilith's kingdom
Drew closer with time
Lilith Immaculate
