

Man In the Moon

Fragma

Like the man in the moon, is chasing the stars
We hold on to our dreams, no matter how far
Like the man in the moon, smiling down from the sky
Life is not what it seems, wherever we areThe man in the moonLike the man in the moon, is chasing the stars
We hold on to our dreams, no matter how far
Life is not what it seems, wherever we areMan in the moon
