Lonely Island

Asher Monroe

There's not a soul inside
How did I ever get here
I'm missing life before wish you would re-appear
But I fell so hard, I went beneath the surface
You see a lovely dance, slowing disappearing
Is it a sweet dream or is it a nightmare
I can't sleep without you right here
Lost in the middle of nowhere
I need you nowFeels like I'm on a lonely island
Waiting for ya
Waiting for ya
On this lonely island
Waiting for ya
Waiting for yaSave me from this lonely island
Save me from this lonely islandSearching high and low
Took my mind to another planet
Didn't love this love could cause me so much damage
But the thought of you keeps me heart from wondering
Are these lovely sands slowly re-appearingIs it a sweet dream or is it a nightmare
I can't sleep without you right here
Lost in the middle of nowhere
I need you nowFeels like I'm on a lonely island
Waiting for ya
Waiting for ya
On this lonely island
Waiting for ya
Waiting for yaFeels like I'm on a lonely island
Waiting for ya
Waiting for ya
On this lonely island
Waiting for ya
Waiting for ya
