

Pray for the Band Latoya

Juliette and the Licks

I'm actin' cold
I feel scared and I'm all alone
I'm just wishin' that you don't ever leave
No matter how hard I make it seem Pray for the band Latoya
It's not like it's killing me
But all the hope, I'll ever know
Comes down to realize in this dream Oh yeah, stay righteous
You've got a justic condition
Oh yeah, stay righteous
You've got to find the solution Twenty years old
I remember crawling on the bathroom floor
White walls turn to crimson
I couldn't take it anymore Sweat it, kick it all alone
I've givin' up everything I'll call my own
Shaming payed release
The more seedness of your release Oh yeah, stay righteous
You've got a justic condition
Oh yeah, stay righteous
You've got to find the solution Move on, stay righteous
You've got to change the situation
Oh yeah, stay righteous
My power is pure and evil Remember all your love
Remember all your love
You wonder, who's God love? Oh yeah, stay righteous
You've got a justic condition
Oh yeah, stay righteous
You've got to find the solution Move on, stay righteous
You've got to change the situation
Oh yeah, stay righteous
My power is pure and evil
