

You Can Have the TV

Barry Manilow

You can have the t.v.
I'll take the radio
really, I don't want the t.v.
just please the radio
I'd like that chair if you don't want it thank you
you keep the couch
you'll need a couch that's ok you can keep the records cause it's your stereo really, I won't need the records without a stereo
I'd like the kitchen chairs and table
thank you
you keep the bed I'll buy a bed
that's ok
the books we can split in half the pots and pan we'll do the same the pictures on the wall we can split in half
and you can have the scrabble game the money in the bank
and you can have your single name our friends, we can split in half and we can each have half the lane ok it's settled then
you can have the t.v.
really I don't want the t.v.
I'll like a lamp if you don't want it
thank you
you keep the couch you'll need a couch
that's ok
you keep the bed, I'll buy a bed
that's ok
the dog, you keep the dog

I'll come around and see him now and then
