

That's All Right

Arthur "Big Boy" Crudup

Well, now that's all right, mama
That's all right for you
That's all right mama, anyway you do

But, that's all right, that's all right
That's all right now mama, anyway you do

Well mama, mama she done told me
Papa told me too
They love you leavin' son now
We'll be there for you

That's all right, that's all right
That's all right now mama, anyway you do
Yeah man

Baby one and one is two
Two and two is four
I love that woman but I've to let her go

But, that's all right, that's all right
That's all right now mama, anyway you do

Babe now you don't want me, why not tell me so?
You won't be bothered with me
'Round you have no more

But, that's all right, that's all right
That's all right now mama, anyway you do

That's all right, that's all right
That's all right now mama, anyway you do
