

Space

Bleach

I don't need to hear your case
I don't want to run away
I know what it takes to turn the tables
If you'll just let me in your space I don't want to be your priest
I just want to be your friend
I'm not here to laugh at you or condemn And He can see where you're going
And He can take care of you
There's always room for the Savior
Even when there's only you You don't want to hear my case
You wish I'd just go away
I've got something that you need to turn the tables
If you'll just let me in your space
