

Stand Up

The Cab

Yeah, you toss like guns, I had nowhere to run
Yeah this world can get so lonely
Yeah the paper and pen were my two best friends cause the sad songs understood me
The irony that all my dreams were keeping me from sleeping
Cause there's something so fun being young and being dumb
Cause you're not afraid of feeling
Yeah all of my demons are kicking and screaming but I'll never leave them behind
Yeah maybe I'm crazy but don't try to save me cause I've never felt so alive
Yeah when they knock you down,
down, down
Kid you gotta stand up (stand up) stand up (stand up)
Yeah when they gotcha down, down, down
Gotta make your own luck (own luck) own luck (own luck)
So tell me I'm outta my mind
Give me a sign
Take it one step at a time
I know its gonna be fine
Open your eyes
Shut up and give it a try
Yeah when they knock you down, down, down
Kid you gotta stand up (stand up) stand up (stand up)
Everybody go ooooh, oooooh, Everybody go ooohh, oooohh
Yeah your eyes like knives, I had nowhere to hide
Yeah this world can cut you open
But all the scars they prove that I found my way through
So I always keep em showing
The sanity is suicide and crazy are the legends
Yeah I'd rather have fun being young and being dumb
Than to save that spot in heaven
Yeah all of my demons are kicking and screaming but I'll never leave them behind
Yeah maybe I'm crazy but don't try to save me cause I've never felt so alive
Yeah when they knock you down,
down, down
Kid you gotta stand up (stand up) stand up (stand up)
Yeah when they gotcha down, down, down
Gotta make your own luck (own luck) own luck (own luck)
So tell me I'm outta my mind
Give me a sign
Take it one step at a time
