Real Friends

The Mint Chicks

We destroyed the end of something new
Don't know what to do
Aside from sniffing glue

We decide exactly who we are
Crashing in a car
With our skulls ajar

I just thought I'd ring to tell you
I'm not taking sides on this one
It's really quite relieving
I know who my real friends are
I just thought I'd ring to tell you
I'm not taking sides on this one
There is no love lost
