

Can't Settle

Witch Mountain

I tell you that it's real,
'cause I feel it deep down in me It's growing like a cancer, it's growing like Rosemary's baby It's got me actin' strange and it's got me feelin' crazy I can't sleep or I'll dream and that's makes me scream Like the scum that grows on stagnant water Like the smell of roadkill as the street is getting hotter I'm a rotter
When I stay still I get ill
One more day
I'm tellin' you that's all I'll stay But I got my leg caught in a trap
And it's keeping me from getting away When I stay still I get ill
If I don't rise, if I don't fly
out of the mine, I will expire You can be sure There's just one cure LIMB, LIMB, GIVE IN,
GIVE IN LIMBS GIVE IN WHY TRY
ALL LIES, ALL LIES, WHY TRY
WHY TRY,
LIMBS GIVE IN TO ALL THE LIES LIMBS GIVE IN I'm gettin' the hell outta here Gonna hit the road so hard

That it goes and crumbled all behind me Leaving me no choice but to go far, far, far, far Gatherin' rust,
gatherin' dust,
feeling so old, old, old Growin' dump,
growin' numb, feeling so cold, cold, cold It's time to go Feelin' time creep by,
makin' me slow, slow, slow Gotta run, ain't done growing' up Maybe I'll never stop I'm turnin' on my heart An I'm turnin' off my mind Gonna catch the first ride goin' outta here, yeah
The very first thing that I find, find, find, find I'll hunt, I want
what I don't know, know, know I'll be all me from head to toe
It's time to go
When you let things get past their prime, prime, prime You get regret and waste time, time, time Precious time,
what a crime I'm saying goodbye,
wasting no time
living a lie.
