

All Too Human (Filthy Dukes remix)

The Rakes

The distance we have come has got me pinin'
For a touch up once familiar and excitin'
And though up yonder charts we might be climbing
To do it without you is very frightenin' Now you've got a job you hoped and work for We're both pretty much where we wanna be
We hardly get any time together
'cos now we're both fallen to disease Human all too human
I'm at the mercy of you
You got me right were you want me
There's nothing else I can do
Human all too human
I'm all tense and strained
Just can't bring myself to tell you
I can't keep livin' like this Comin' back to the flat now seems so lonely
Your not there so its just how I left it
The chair that you used to sit in is now empty,
Its arms can't hold me like they're meant to Human all to human,
I'm at the mercy of you
You've got me right were you want me
There's nothing else I can do
Human all too human,
I'm all tense and strained
Just can't bring myself to tell you
I can't keep livin' like this (human all to human) I need you I need you, I seriously do
I'm not even drunk yet, I only had a few
I need you I need you I seriously do,
I'm not even drunk yet I only had a few You got me right were you want me
There nothing else I can do
Human all too human
I'm all tense and strained
Just can't bring myself to tell you
I can't keep living like this
