

Everything Comes to an End

Overbreaker

you suffer in silence you're caged like a bird but you can't deny this you can't find the words you're so electric, you light up the room and I should just leave by myself before i'm consumed...Chorus:
This is the darkness before the dawn...
Something has changed, now that you've been gone, This is a call to be moving on, Everything comes to an end.you're caught like a child your hand in the jar but what you defiled is all that you are... and you're so deserving, of all that you'll get and all that you've done to yourself you'll never forget
