High Times For Low Lives

The Griswolds

You're a trouble maker man
Nothing in your life means anything
You're a problematic child
You're problematicOh this is high times for low lives
You bet we can see
Oh this is high times for low livesIt must be hard to just be yourself
Coz, life's writing cheques
That you just can't digest and
Welcome to my living hell
Yeah, welcome to my living hellYou're a trouble maker man
Nothing in your life means anything
You're a problematic child
You're problematic
Oh this is high times for low lives
You bet we can see
Oh this is high times for low livesI bet it must be hard to make friends
Coz, life's breaking legs and
You can't make amends and
Welcome to my living hell
Yeah, welcome to my living hellI'm at war with the ceiling
At war with myself and
I guess this must be bad for my health
Yeah I guess this must be bad for my health and
Welcome to my living hellYou're a trouble maker man
Nothing in your life means anything
You're a problematic child
You're problematic
Oh this is high times for low lives
You bet we can see
Oh this is high times for low lives
Oh this is high times for low lives[Yeah this is high times for low lives
It's hard times for low lives
