

Foolish

Mpx

Some people say that I threw my brain away
That I'm illogical and don't have much to say
Some people say that it's foolish to believe
In what we cannot see, so we're deceived
 All that I can do is listen to you
 All that you can be is out there you'll see
 Every single time that I
 Explain to you my reasons why
 You turn away, you close your eyes
 And then you cut me down to size
Some people say that I threw my vote away
The moment I decided to live life this way
Some people say that it's foolish to believe
In what we cannot see, so we're deceived
 I'm not here to make you all agree
 But have you truly studied this historically?
 All that I can do is listen to you
 All that you can be is out there you'll see
 Every single time that I
 Explain to you my reasons why
 You turn away, you close your eyes
 And then you cut me down to size
 Every single time that I
 Explain to you my reasons why
 You turn away, you close your mind
 Your heart's just not prepared to find
 Some meaning, some meaning
 Just wait and listen to that voice
It calls so quietly for you to make a choice
 What will it be?
 What will it be?
 Every single time that I
 Explain to you my reasons why
 You turn away, you close your eyes
 And then you cut me down to size
 Every single time that I
 Explain to you my reasons why
 You turn away, you close your mind
 Your heart's just not prepared to find

Some meaning, some meaning
