Long Enough

Andy Griggs

You wanna know how long I can walk this straight line
Will I be strong when temptation is messing with my mind?I know when the devil's talkin'
I know what he's tryin' to do
I know when it's time to start walkin'
Walkin' myself right back to you
Baby, if you have to ask
How long will this lastLong enough
Till the stars turn out the lights
And time runs out of time
Baby, my love
Is truer than the simple truth
Is deeper than a well of wishes
Sweeter than a million kisses
Yeah, is that long enough?
Is that long enough?You wanna know how far I can go on this way
I'll give it all my heart, I can travel night and dayI know what your Momma told you
I know what your Daddy said
I know what your friends are thinkin'
But don't let it worry your pretty little head
Baby, don't you know by now
Our love will be aroundLong enough
To see our childrens children
Honey, if the good Lords willing
Our love
Is truer than the simple truth
Is deeper than a well of wishes
Sweeter than a million kisses
Yeah, is that long enough?So baby, if you have to ask
How long this will lastLong enough
Till the stars turn out the lights
And time runs out of time
Baby, my love
Is truer than the simple truth
Is deeper than a well of wishes
Sweeter than a million kisses, yeah
Is that long enough?
Is that long enough?
Yeah, is that long enough?
