

Reality (Interlude)

Dream

So di, who was that girl next to your man today?

That was his next-door neighbor
(girl's laugh)Next-door neighbor di?

Yeah

Comeon now, your gonna like by that

Well I mean yeah, cause like, yeah...

Di! he's lying, he's been playing you this whole time

No he hasn't

Di, who hangs out with their next door neighbor at the mall without telling

Their girlfriend?

Like, oh yeah I'm just gonna go to the mall, I think she'll think it's cool

Exactly

I don't think so

Yeah, but I trust him

But you have honesty and he obviously, I mean he left you to go with her

Hold on time out, time out

You gonna believe this guy di?

Well, what else should I believe, believe, believe
