Somebody

Jukebox the Ghost

I want it, I need it, I want somebody
I want it, I need it, I want your eyes to turn
I need it, I want it, I want somebody, baby
Now this is my turnI dont want any more doors
Cause Im walking on the string
They only slam anymore
Like were pulling out teeth
And I could just see her eyes
And you were scanning the skies for me
I dreamt like you were some long-forgotten soldier
Like I was someone that you cared forI want it, I need itI want it, I need it, I want somebody
I want it, I need it, I want your eyes to turn
I need it, I want it, I want somebody, baby
Now this is my turn(Oooweeeooohs)I dont want any more heartbreak
Im tired of the sound it makes
Like trying to shut out the dark at night
You close your eyes but it wont erase
And you were walking beside
Some other persons shadow
And it was more than I could take
I wouldnt see what I couldnt know
That there might be somebody after meOhhh I want it I need itI want it, I need it, I want somebody
I want it, I need it, I want your eyes to turn
I need it, I want it, I want somebody, baby
Now this is my turn(Oooweeeooohs)I dont want any more doors
Cause Im walking on the string
They only slam anymore
Like were pulling out teeth
And I could just see her eyes
And you were scanning the skies for me
I dreamt like you were some long forgotten soldier
Like I was someone that you cared forI want it, I need itI want it, I need it, I want somebody
I want it, I need it, I want your eyes to turn
I need it, I want it, I want somebody, baby
Now this is my turn(Oooweeeooohs)I need that new vacation
Where nothing thats spoken is known
Let the winter be my station

Ill let the cold teach me what to know
That there might be somebody after meOhhh I want it (HUH), I need it (YOO)
I want it (OHH)
I want it, I need itI want it, I need it, I want somebody
I want it, I need it, I want your eyes to turn
I need it, I want it, I want somebody, baby
Now this is my turn(Oooweeeooohs)
