Normal

A.Tone Da Priest

(Hook)
Does that make, make me, make, make me normal
Does that make, make you, make, make you care (2x)
(Verse 1)
Im trying to listen, just to adapt
See me trying to make it work, begging you react
Tell me, whats it really mean guess Im being just like you,
Lacking truth, fill imperfections with a suit, thats the proof
Of the hearts sheer existence cant you, feel it in your pulse beating
Out of my control, reason, having all these goals
Hold me captive for the angst of, your in-exception
Am I anything I thought, Im looking for a reference
(Hook)
(Verse 2)
Sentenced to life, an eternity open Im burning
Sun skin, to sun shine, never stay the same Im turning
Over a new leaf, being just like you
Vulnerable to change, cause this is what we do
Who begun that way, different to blend in with the scene
Unify my eyes descriptions, pacify my dreams
Make nothing what it seems, everything is what it isnt
Sense ability alone, when you see the heard diminish
(Bridge)
Can I be, just like you
Even though were not the same, even though Im lost in dreams
Can I be, just like you
Even though my heart is gone, even though my wills still strong
