

Sucka for You

Anthony Hamilton

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

looking on had to come talk to you are you from around, or in for the night tell me who's keeping you? i see you and i want that trying to get to know you i'm taking a chance, a hell of a chance cause i want you
i ain't too proud to BEG, i ain't too tired to stay up all night i got something i'ma sucka for you, i'm a sucka for you i ain't too proud to care, i ain't too tired to stay up all night
i got something i'ma sucka for you, i'm a sucka for you is honey your name, ow you look sweet what kind of things you like? do you like it dance or cheese i'm just your type i see it and i want it let me get to you left tonight is the night, let's get it right cause i want you
i ain't too proud to BEG, i ain't too tired to stay up all night
i got something i'ma sucka for you, i'm a sucka for you
i got something i'ma sucka for you, i'm a sucka for you every time i see you i wonder, what we could be, yeah i can tell my heart to wait the morning, then to leave
i ain't too proud to care, i ain't too tired to stay up all night
i got something i'ma sucka for you, i'm a sucka for you
i ain't too proud to care, i ain't too tired to stay up all night
i got something i'ma sucka for you, i'm a sucka for you.
