Less Than Jake

And I
I wonder if you'd understand
If I said I'll never go
Never go along again,
And if I told you all that I believe in
And gave you all my reasons
And always had an answer
An honest answer for all of Them,Sometimes,
You just want to belong
At any loss or any cost
Sometimes,
You just want to belongYeah I,
I've made mistakes before
But I just can't seem to remember them anymore,
And I've folowed everyone's lead befor
And I've made my oun disicions,
And I've never felt so strong befor
I've never felt so strong befor,Sometimes,
You just want to belong
At any loss or any cost
Sometimes,
You just want to belong
Yeah sometimes your best defence
Is a good reminder of your common sence
Oh yeah
Sometimes,
You just want to belong,So strike a match
And hope it lasts
Heres to following your oun lead,
Strike a match
And hape it lasts
Heres to following your oun lead,
Its the path that I have taken (So strike a Match And hope it lasts
After all the contemplation Hers to following your oun lead)
It's the promise I have made (So Strike a match)
I hope it lasts
I hope it lastsSometimes,
You just want to belong
Yeah sometimes your best defence

Is a good reminder of your common sence
Oh yeah
Sometimes,
You just want to belong,
