Lucky Now

Ryan Adams

Let It Be Me by Ray LaMontagne
There comes a time
A time in everyone's life
Well nothing seems to go your way
Well nothing seems to turn out right.
There may come a time
You just can't seem to find your place.
For every door you open
Seems like you get two slamed in your face.
That's when you need someone
Someone that you that you can call
When all your faith is gone
It feels like you can't go home.
Let it be me
Let it be me
If it's a friend you need
Let it be me
Let it be me
Feels like you're always coming up last
Pockets full of nothing ain't got no cash

No matter where you turn
You ain't got no place to stand.
You reach out for something and they slap your hand.
I remember all too well just how it feels to be all alone
Feels like you would give anything
For just a little place you can call your own.
That's when you need someone
Someone that you can call
When all you're faith is gone
Feels like you can't go home.
Let it be me
Let it be me
If it's a friend you need
Let it be me
Let it be me
Let it be me
It it's a friend you need
Let it be me

Let it be me
Let it be me

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/