

Oo-wee

Ringo Starr

Ever since I met you, baby
I've been acting kinda strange
I wake up in the morning, then without a warning
All I do is scream your name, yeah
Every time I look inside me
I see the man that I've become
You make me wanna holler and jump right out my collar
You've got me on the run, yeah
Oo-wee, babe, oo-wee, yeah
Friends don't recognize me, they say you hypnotize me
Ooh, what you done to me, babe?
You drive me out of my sunsets, oo-wee
She look just like the new Jean Harlow
With sultry lips and long blonde hair
They say, she came from Haïtes or was it the Euphrates
That brought my lady here, yeah?
Oo-wee, babe, oo-wee, yeah
Friends don't understand me, they say you underhand me
Ooh, what you done to me, babe?
You drive me out of my senses, oo-wee, yeah
Take it, John
It's my doctor playing

When I walk into her parlor
It's like the spider and the fly
In the darkness, she surrounds me
And weaves her web around me
And locks me up inside, yeah
She look just like the new Jean Harlow
With sultry lips and long blonde hair
They say, she came from Haïtes or was it the Euphrates
That brought my lady here, uh, uh?
Oo-wee, babe, oo-wee, yeah
Friends don't understand me, they say you underhand me
Ooh, what you done to me, babe?
You drive me out of my senses, oo-wee, yeah
Oo-wee, babe
(Oo-wee)
Oo-wee, babe

(Oo-wee)
Oo-wee, babe
(Oo-wee)
Oo-wee, babe
(Oo-wee, oo-wee)
