

Floundering

Carly Simon

First she sees her hypnotist
When she rushes to her psychiatrist
She sees her acupuncturist
She's got to got to get fixed Then she sees her scientologist
Gets fed by her nutritionist
She can not seem to resist
Seeking cosmic consciousness Chorus:
Looks like she's floundering again
Seems to be floundering again
Looks like she's floundering again
Seems to be floundering again She swears by Jack La Lanne then she throws the I Ching again
She searches in the Himalayas
For someone to ease the pain Chorus She's looking for a cure
She does not know exactly what for Chorus She's into political activism
Reading up on Tibetan Buddhism
Anna Freud's analysed her dreams
And she's hoarse from primal screams Chorus
