

Let Her Go (Remix)

Mike Stud

When we walk into the club, it's celebrity style
Takin' free shots like a technical foul, ow
Especially now, they had to hate it
Still a freshman even though I graduated
But I'm happy that it happened though
Cause what's first class if you haven't sat in coach
So I'm livin' life in the left lane
And I'm on the road like the X Games
It feel good to be relevant doe
Getting chedda, livin' better than ever
So, I'm livin' care free, I'm a rare breed
Game on lock, and I got the spare key
And she like that, so she come through
And she grab on Mike, check 1, 2
Damn right, this a hell of a life
On tour but we both gonna remember tonight And she like good weed
And some cheap wine, just let go girl
We gon' be fine, be fine, be fine
Everything will be fine, be fine
But we ain't got no place to go
Forget what you thought that you know
Just let go, go, go
Just let go
Just let go Aww yeah
So tell me how you livin'
We on a trip, and they trippin', that shit is different
So tie your laces, I'm flyin' places for meetings
And shopping when I'm landing cause packing's an inconvenience
Now watch it all change up
Been on the come up but remember where I came from
I'm starting to make ends, I ain't worried about fake friends
Cause I'm chillin' with the same ones
We just havin' fun, and they just talk about a bunch of shit they haven't done
And I come from a small town with city dreams
Like girls in chuck tays and skinny jeans
And you fit the description
Forget about your friends, baby we should go missin'
So let's go, I got a car in the front

And you not a ho, you just know what you want, so come on And she like good weed

And some cheap wine, just let go girl

We gon' be fine, be fine, be fine

Everything will be fine, be fine

But we ain't got no place to go

Forget what you thought that you know

Just let go Baby, take them clothes off

I don't even wanna ask twice

Go ahead and put them lights low

So we can go all night

So baby take them clothes off

And girl don't make me ask twice

So tell me what you like

We can do it all night

Everything will be fine

Just let go And she like good weed

Just let go, girl

You gon' be fine

Everything will be fine, be fine And she like good weed

Just let go girl

We gon' be fine, be fine, be fine

Everything will be fine, be fine And she like good weed

And some cheap wine, just let go girl

We gon' be fine, be fine, be fine

Everything will be fine, be fine

But we ain't got no place to go

Just let go
