

Fire & Fast Bullets

Blitzen Trapper

There's dragons and demons alive in the skies
Their belt buckles, golden shells cover their eyes
If you're a cool-headed kid, better swallow his pride
When the fire starts fallin' and the fast bullets fly
A brain dancing wizard He's all wrapped up in blue He's working ----- fat-free
His footwork is too
His shield is in the Muppet show - up to the sky
when the fire starts fallin' and the fast bullets fly uh oh uh oh Okay, this city is a warzone unheard of his love this dangerous fiction will rain from above But billboards -- go wrapped up and hot until the fire starts fallin' and the fast bullets fly So keep your eyes to the sky lining into the door for the clicking of the heels on the plasticine floor the sit of upholstery and burning arise
when the fire starts fallin' and the fast bullets fly uh oh uh oh There's dragons and demons alive in the skies
You can run for the hills but you know you can't hide
If you're trapped in the dark in the blink of an eye as the fire starts fallin' and the fast bullets fly
