

Distant Thunder (2009 Remastered Version)

Thunder

Every morning I wake up
And I switch the TV on
I like to watch the world go by
From the safety of my home News is looking bad today
Like it always seems to be
I can't believe I'm so unmoved
By the violence that I see It's a fact of life
But I can't cry anymore
'Cos it happens all the time I hear the sound of distant thunder
It's coming closer every day
Soon there'll be lightning crashing to the ground
It feels like the end's not far away As we race towards the future
We're not learning from the past
In the minefields of excess
You can hear the devil laugh He can see what's going on
'Cos he knows the signs so well
It won't be long before we meet
On the road that leads to hell In the wink of an eye
A hundred years will pass
So there's no time left to lie I hear the sound of distant thunder
It's coming closer every day
Soon there'll be lightning crashing to the ground
It feels like the end's not far away In the wink of an eye
A hundred years will pass
So there's no time left to lie I hear the sound of distant thunder
It's coming closer every day
Soon there'll be lightning crashing to the ground
Feels like the end's not far away
It feels like the end's not far away I can hear the sound of distant thunder
It's coming closer every day
I can feel it, can you feel it, yeah I can hear the sound, the sound of distant thunder
I can feel it, can you feel it
I can feel it, I can feel that thunder crashing down
