Liar's Edge

Brainstorm

You say to me I'm guilty for things I've never done I'll try to show resistance
I'm out to prove you wrong
I hate your accusations your cheap and nasty tricks I'm not your private target don't treat me bad again I'm calling your name
what's your excuse
I'm saying to you...
You'll try to find a black sheep you'll try to steal my show you've tried to live in heaven but all you got was hell You've tried to find a stranger just even by yourself you're eaten up with envy the answer of your lies I'm calling your name
what's your excuse
I'm saying to you...
...don't blame me liar's edge
