Smoke

100 Monkeys

I take myself down in my own reckoning
It's beckoning me on
Still there's something wrong with me
I don't know
Could it be all the smoke?(All the smoke x4)Oh woe oh woe oh woe is me
I drown in my own ecstasy oh woe
Oh woe
Away, away, away with me
I'm unimportant
C'est la vieAway, awayAll these thoughts roam in my head
Will protect me from those snazzy beds
So instead of nights spent warm in dream
I scream I'm a demon of lustI love you much too much
I love it much too much
I love it much too much
I love it much too muchMust be some demon of lust
Must be holding a grudge
Must be some gluttonous
(Watch your mouth)I love it much too much(This is how we love it x4)Well I'm drawn in the smoke
And I'm starting to choke
As I pull on my coat
With this lighter I hold
Oh it's the flame that's delivering another fine dose
(Sweet sweet smoke)Yes I'm drowning in smoke
(Sweet sweet smoke)
And I'm starting to choke
As I pull on my coat
(Sweet sweet smoke)
With this lighter I hold
Oh it's the flame that's delivering
(Sweet sweet smoke)
Another fine dose
Sweet sweet smokeAsk me how I cope with this I say
I'm a lazy masochist I knowI love you much too much
I love it much too much
I love it much too much
I love it much too muchMust be some demon of lust
Must be holding a grudge
Must be some gluttonous

(Say that)I love it much too muchThis is how we love it (x4)
