

Lighthouse Fire

Josh Ritter

Gonna build you a cathedral out of nothing but the rafters
'Tween the stars, 'tween stars, 'tween the stars, 'tween the stars
From the tree of good and evil bring you fruit of the knowledge
It's of your heart, of your heart, of your heart, of your heart (Gonna build you a cathedral out of nothing but the rafters)

('Tween the stars, 'tween stars, 'tween the stars, 'tween the stars)
(From the tree of good and evil bring you fruit of the Nile)
(It's of your heart, of your heart, of your heart, of your heart) My love is a lighthouse fire

(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire

(My love) 'Tween the sugar and the cane is the where I wanna stay
I wanna stay, wanna stay, wanna stay, wanna stay
Out where the high in the highway meets the sky
Meets the sky, meets the sky, meets the sky, meets the Milky white Way ('Tween the sugar and the cane is the where I wanna stay)

(I wanna stay, wanna stay, wanna stay, wanna stay)
(Out where the high in the highway meets the sky)
(Meets the sky, meets the sky, meets the sky, meets the milky white) My love is a lighthouse fire

(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire
(My love is a lighthouse fire)
My love is a lighthouse fire

(My love)(My love)
(I wanna stay, wanna stay, wanna stay, wanna stay)

(My love)
