Fuck the Rest

Falling In Reverse

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

[Barking]Charlie! What are you barking at? Charlie, I'm trying to sing a song, you gotta go. Charlie, go!
Ahem.My mind is like a puzzle or a Rubix cube
But figuring me out is something that you shouldn't do
Because my thoughts are locked inside a padded room
And if these padded walls could talk I'd surely be doomed (let's go!).Well, trouble's what they told me since the day I was born. Evil's what they stamped up on my hospital forms.
I tried to choke my mom with my umbilical cord.
The doctor was too busy amputating my hornsSo the devil and the Lord won't keep waging a war
Pulling me in opposite directions, I'm torn.
A change of course, a deadly force, a terrible storm,
Kicking down the devil's door to settle the score.It's over, I'm older,
I'm alive, I'm sober.
Believe me, I'm living,
I'm happy, I'm winning.Faster, faster, I am on my way.
Shred of this disaster I can truly save, save us.And I know in my heart
I can reach for the stars.
All the things that you dreamed
Weren't dreams like before.
So let's hope for the best,
And just say, "Fuck the rest"Well, soon they'll be the point where I have a chance.
Cause now I'm stealing fame, I'm in the ears of the class.
All the high school kids are sick of being told to relax
(fuck off)
The crazier the kid, the tighter his pants.Yeah, let's start a revolution bringing gothic back, gotta march in like an army wearing black-on-black.
Power of a thousand of these motherfucking zombie cats,
none of them can do it quite like I can.It's over, I'm older,
I'm alive, I'm sober.
Believe me, I'm living,
I'm happy, I'm winning.Faster, faster, I am on my way.
Shred of this disaster I can truly save, save us.And I know in my heart
I can reach for the stars.

All the things that you dreamed
weren't dreams like before.
So let's hope for the best,
and just say, "Fuck the rest"I'm so tired of being sick, I'm so sick of being tired.
This is for everyone out there who feels like they've had enough. This song is for you, and your mother too.You'll never win, they said.
So stop while you're ahead.
And music is my love
and passion's in my blood.
So say what you will,
cause I just don't give a fuck.So get the fuck up, go!Faster, faster, I am on my way.
Shred of this disaster I can truly save, save us.And I know in my heart
I can reach for the stars.
All the things that you dreamed
weren't dreams like before.
So let's hope for the best,
and just say, "Fuck the rest"
