

Love Is Leaving

BBMak

There were times I knew
But I found it hard to say
You were special in my life
Never thought you'd go away I'll be strong, I'll get by
Without you in my life
I can see through your lies
Did you ever love me
I never found your love You and I know, love is leaving
And you don't want me anymore
Why should I even try You and I know, love is leaving
Now you're the last thing on my mind
Someone else, I will find
A memory, I've left behind If I ever made you cry
Any reason I can't find
It was lonely by your side
Like a fool I stood by you I'll be strong, I'll get by
Without you in my life
I can see through your lies
Did you ever love me
I never found your love You and I know, love is leaving
And you don't want me anymore
Why should I even try You and I know, love is leaving
Now you're the last thing on my mind
Someone else, I will find
A memory, I've left behind Is there something I could do
Is there something I should say
Is there someone else
To keep me from the night You and I know, love is leaving
And you don't want me anymore
Why should I even try You and I know, love is leaving
And you don't want me anymore
Why should I even try
