Candy

The Men

-Verse-I just quit my job
Now I can stay out all night long.
Where my mind is tomorrow
It don't matter til the dawn.I can go to a million places
I could sing a thousand songs.
Until my mind is made up
I'll be really really gone.When was the last time
You were able to take a breath?
To not give in, to be sore as sin,
Or to be a nervous wreck?I've been to the darkest places
I've been a total mess.
I picked up what I could
And I laughed-off all the rest.-Chorus-
When I hear the radio play
I don't care that it's not me.
Remember when I'd shout anything
For you to see me.I could never sing
Now my voice is free.Now my voice is...-Verse-I just quit my job
Now I can stay out all night long.
Where my mind is tomorrow
It don't matter til the dawn.I can go to a million places
I could sing a thousand songs.
Until my mind is made up
I'll be really really gone.-Chorus-
When I hear the radio play
I don't care that it's not me.
Remember when I'd shout anything
For you to see me.I could never sing
Now my voice is free.Now my voice is...

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/