

This Is the Time

Superchick

This is the story of your life
A movie starring you
What's the next scene have for you to do?
Leave the dishes in the sink
Leave your fear there too
Live the story you would write for you Say hey hey wake your heart
And break break break apart
The walls that keep you from being you
And walk walk towards the light
And don't stop till you live your life
Like someone died for you This is the time to try
Step out your life is waiting
And as you fall you'll find
That you can fly
(Repeat) You can find a million words
To build a wall of fear
Safe behind that wall imprisoned here
Take that someday step today
To who you're meant to be
And turn your dreams to plans
So you can breathe Prechorus
Chorus Ask anyone whose time is up
What they'd give for what you've got
And how they'd live your life
Live like your lifes worth dying for
You've just walked out that prison door

And you'll know how to live your life Publishing: DJ Spacemonkey Music(ASCAP)/Matt Dally Music
