Poison Oak

100 Monkeys

Poison, poison, poison oak
You will reap what you have sown
You'll reap the seed of war
You'll reap the seed of hate
You'll reap the seed of love
You can't appreciateYou're poison, poison, poison oak
See how far down your roots have grown
Into the soil that God first toiled creating
The garden of Eden
And Adam and Eve
They had to leave
They had to eat from the poison treeOh oh oh, my tattered soles (x7)
There are places you don't want to goPoison, poison, poison oak
You will reap what you have sown
You'll reap the seed of war
You'll reap the seed of hate
You'll reap the seed of love
You can't appreciate
You'll reap the seed of denial
You'll reap the seed of the child
You'll reap the seed of the trial that killed himOh oh oh my tattered soles (x12)
Oh woh oh woh oh wo-o-o-oh (x8)
