Everything Is Happening Again

Ratcat

(S.DAY)
I woke up this morning when I fell out of bed
It seems I was having a nightmare.
My mother, she was strangling me,
while my father stuck pins in my head.
Everything is happening again
to meee...
I got to work late, and the boss chewed me out
he said, "don't ever come here again."
Now my girlfriend is complaining to me,
that she has no time for her friends.
Everything is happening again
to meee..
When I got home, my cat was dead on the mat,
you know it made me want to cry.
I always thought that I had a good heart,
it leaves me wondering why, is ...
Everything is happening again
to meee..
