Questions

Insane Clown Posse

Why? Why do these questions come to mind
When the answer is s-s-so far away?
The questions I ask myself everydayWhy? Every time I reach for the sky
I can only reach so high, why?
Why? Every time I head butt a brick wall
I always crack my skull, why?Why? Every time I stab somebody
I always get my clothes bloody, why?
Why? Every time I drive down the wrong side of the street
Everybody wanna beep, why?Why? Every time I bunk and I sell rock
I wind up in a cell block, why?
Why? Every time I shoot somebody in the face
Pigs give chase, why?Why? Every time I drink a little gasoline
I shit my spleen, why?
Why? When I try to fly like a birdy
I wind up on a gurney, dead, tell me why?Won't you tell me why? Someone tell me why?
Jesus tell me why? I must find out why
Won't you tell me why? Someone tell me why?
Jesus tell me why? I must find out whyWhy? Every time I swallow a flathead nail
My neck feels stale, why?
Why? Every time I contact dark spirits
They wanna break my mirrors, why?Why? Every time I choke a friend's neck
He don't come back, why?
Why? Every time I stab my eyes with an icepick
I can't see shit, why?Why? Every time I play chicken with a train
It wins the game, why?
Why? Every time I wake the dead up
They try to eat my head up, why?Why? Every time I see my reflection
I see no direction, why?
Why? Every time I order a taco
You want a bite, motherfucka? Tell me whyWon't you tell me why? Someone tell me why?
Jesus, tell me why? I must find out why
Won't you tell me why? Someone tell me why?
Jesus, tell me why? I must find out whyI admit I can't explain them

I admit I can't explain them, can't explain them
I admit I can't explain them
I admit I can't explain them, can't explain themWhy? Every time I raise my arms in celebration

Player hation, why?
Why? Just 'cause I'm dead, decayed, and passed
You give me no ass, why?Why? Every time I chew on thumbtacks
I get blood on my snacks, why?
Why? Every time I kick Faygos in the sky
You wanna know why?Why? Every time an angel wanna kiss me
It always seems to miss me, why?
