Nuclear War

Oxymoron

Face this, the missile's on the way.
Crisis, will the bomb be dropped today?
Last war, to end this bloody mess.
Danger, It's you the real menace.With all their foes their doing away.
We're all in this - hey hey hey.
No one dares to talk aloud 'bout the real imminent crisis.
The gruesome leaders are counting their bombs.
Blow them straight up your arse.
There's no cover in the case of war. Come on, drop it!Sirens - sirens in the heat.
Fighting - on your TV screen.The secret bases are alarmed, the troops are on the alert.
The counter attack is set on foot.
Depends on a single word.With all their foes their doing away.
And all enclosed have to die.
There's no cover in the case of war.[Chorus:]
Nuclear war.
That's the nuclear war.Watch out - for the news today. Fallout - over israel.The bomb has struck in morningtime.
A shelter won't be of use.
A few survived to waste away.
But they'll never know the cause, of the nuclear war.
