Circle Square Triangle

Grim Skunk

How could you be so blinded by your own greed
I tried to relax one day I found myself freed
We're tearing at the walls
We're screaming for more
We're crawlin' through the jungle to the demon's door
You can do what you want to but maybe
You should cut it out and see if it bleeds
You've made the world so heavy
It's pulling down like gravity
Your life is end over end over end
And it's tumbling down the mountain
And it's picking up speed
It's getting harder and harder and harder...
To take a new direction the pull's too strong
Burn that poison out before too long
Make my soul breathe fire take my hand
Take your life one step higher free your mind
Greed holds you down on your knees
Release all your worldly needs
See how your mind is at ease
Free from this swollen disease
He stands alone in the fields
Me I know just how it feels
When I first met you
You were young and unimpressed
By things of value
Which you know lust to possess
You want it so bad
That you're going crazy you're obsessed
With the things that you have
Can you buy your self-respect
I'd rather lose everything
Than gather gold like a king
With a crown on my head stone in my heart
Bleeding me dry 'til it tears me apart
