

Shady (feat. Nile Rodgers & Sam Sparro)

Adam Lambert

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Baby, I'm on the hunt
Baby, I got my target on you
Trouble, that's what I want
And I'm gonna do
Just what I have to
Get your ass down to the front
Go on and roll it out, I dare you
Sorry I'm kinda drunk
But did you just say your game was brand new
No, I ain't broken, but I need a fix
That satisfaction when I, I get my kicks
I'm up all night, I'm outta sight
Don't turn on the light
'Cause I'm feeling so shady lately
Come on and take me underground
Deep under the street
Come on and take me, take me down
Where freaks like us can meet
Turn it up, turn it up, turn it up
Turn it way up, don't stop the beat
Come on and turn me, turn me out
'Cause I'm feeling so shady lately
Gonna go and get me a shot
Gonna knock it back, forget all my blues
Yeah, that really hits the spot
I'm feeling pretty fierce in my dancin' shoes
No, I ain't broken, but I need a fix
That satisfaction when I get my kicks
I'm up all night, I'm outta sight
Don't turn on the light
'Cause I'm feeling so shady lately
Come on and take me underground
Deep under the street
Come on and take me, take me down
Where freaks like us can meet
Turn it up, turn it up, turn it up
Turn it way up, don't stop the beat

Come on and turn me, turn me out
'Cause I'm feeling so shady lately I throw more shade than a cloudy day
The brakes don't work, I'm just a runaway train
Somebody come and help me out,
All I wanna be is free
I was tryin' to get down, now I can't get out
I'm shady lately Come on and take me underground
Deep under the street
Come on and take me, take me down
Where freaks like us can meet
Turn it up, turn it up, turn it up
Turn it way up, don't stop the beat
Come on and turn me, turn me out
'Cause I'm feeling so shady lately Shady lately
