Immunity

Dex Arson

Of all of the stars in the sky, you were mine.
With the world just passing you by, you still shine bright.
We sit in this silence that we break through our embrace.
You were my violent, most beautiful mistake.

(Wassup!)

Of all of the stars in the sky, you were mine..
With the world just passing you by, you still shine bright.
We sit in this silence, that we break through our embrace.
And you were my violent, most beautiful mistake.

So chase me as far as you can go.
And make me the stone you can't throw.
I don't know what you did to me you are my immunity.

I chase you through the places I can't go.
Make you the stone I won't throw.
And I don't know what you did to me.
You are my Immunity.
