Forever Your Girl

Paula Abdul

Hey baby, you gotta remember
I'm forever your girl
Baby forever and ever and ever
You know I amBaby pick your head up
Come on and look me in the face
'Cause I can tell that somethin' is bringin' you down
Why are you down?Is it the rumor that another boy wants to take your place?
I hear he's after your heart
Have you been hearin' the stories, they're goin' around?
All of my friends are talkin'Baby, just remember I gave you my heart
Ain't no one gonna tear us apart
He could promise the moon and the stars above
Even if he promised me the worldJust remember I'm forever your girl
He could promise the world
You gotta remember
I'm forever your girlHoney, listen to me
Your love is all I need
You should know that I don't need nothin' that money can buy
It's no lieSo if a boy were to come along and try to make me leave you
Girl I'd go out of my mind
There'd be no need to worry, I'm tellin' you why
I need to hear that you really love meBaby, don't you know that I love you?
And I'd never put nobody above you
He could promise the moon and the stars above
Even if he promised me the worldJust remember I'm forever your girl
He could promise the world
You gotta remember
I'm forever your girlI'm forever your baby
Just remember I'm forever your girl
He could promise the world
You gotta remember I'm forever your girlWhen the mountains crumble into the sea
That's the day someone'll come between you and meBaby, just remember I gave you my heart
Tell me ain't no one gonna tear us apart
Baby he could promise me diamonds
Even if he promised me pearls
Honey you know I ain't lyin'
Listen as I tell it to the worldYou gotta remember, baby, remember
You gotta remember, I'm forever your girl
Baby forever and ever and ever

We'll be together, I'm forever your girlBaby, forever and ever and ever
You gotta remember
I'm forever
Hey baby he could promise the worldGirl you know I love you
And I always will
If we live 'til forever baby
I'll be lovin' you, I'll be lovin' you stillJust remember I'm forever your girl
I'm forever your girl
I'll be lovin' you, I'll be lovin' you still
Just remember I'm forever your girl
I'm forever your girl
