

Soul for Two

Tiza Brown

SOUL FOR TWO

I got soul babe for me and you
I got love untold
I got courage bold
I got faith that love will survive
Through the blinding storm
And the raging fire
I got soul babe for me and you
I got, I, I got soul for two

Time has been cruel
And its tryin'™ to bring you low
To make you cower
Leave you to its fates
And lost in its crooked maze
It has no power
Drowning in silence and
Lost in its clouded gaze
Tunnels unlighted
Weighed down with leaden pain
No hope to regain
Evil, evil delighted

I got soul babe for me and you
I got love untold
I got courage bold
I got faith that love will survive
Through the blinding storm
And the raging fire
I got soul babe for me and you
I got, I, I got soul for two

Nobody took in count
Just who was there about
Blinded, they could not see
Too fast to contemplate
To late to abdicate
They must now deal with me
You were never alone

In you I found my home
My heart they can not sway
Chin high prepared to fight
Iâ€™ll stand and not take flight
Ill be there to save day

(to make me go)
