AttenCHUN! Where my soldiers motherfucker?

I guess the fight is on, me and you nigga

And you, wha? And you, wha? And you, wha? Nigga

I ain't scared of you bitches, I'll put yo' brain in stitches

This remix for real niggaz who get money to trenches

Check my resume nigga, I got that one hitta quitta

And yo' boys ready to flee like, why'd you fuck with that nigga?

I tell her front, back, side to side

Never let a punk ass nigga slide, dawg

You get beat dead, that means you dead meat

I been on Wall Street, Beach Street, Gregg Street

That's Dallas, Atlanta, I style with them hammers

I wild witcho nanna, doggystyle on a hamper

You'll get ripped apart, that's it with darts, you kids ain't smart

Pop, pop, pop, I lit the dark, from the wizard door, come get some heart

That's courage and brain, 'caine on several strips

Not from Houston, but shit, call me 'Little Flip'

'Cuz I flip a little, fa shizzle, you flippin' nickels

When I flip coke and flip boats, come live a little
And you best be knowin', pussy still is the best thang goin'
Any extra dough, come invest in hoe'in
But I clap that boy, kidnap and wrap that boy
Clap, we ready, I'ma mastered boy like Pastor Troy
But I'm stoned sucka, with my nigga Bone Crusher
Baby, we like to bone, all our chicks are bone crushers
We got guns in coupes, in case our sun'll roof
No basketball, when we talkin', run and shoot
So I'm outside of da club and you think I'm a punk
So I go to my loaded tech nine that's off in the trunk
I told that motherfucker, I ain't never scared
(Eastside)
I ain't never scared
(Westside)

(Westside)
Aiyyo, the forty cal' is full and I'm waitin'
No matter which county I'm in DeKalb, Cobb, Fulton, or Clayton
Muah baby, you know who it is, the kiss of death
If the world was sucka free, it just be me and my niggaz left
I ain't neva scared, I got big hammers everywhere
In places where you need yo passport at, I'm heavy there
It's time we get even here, when I put the game back
In it's proper perspective, this time leave it there
You can think whachu want, 'til I blow the back of yo' brains out
And see if you could think with yo' front
Like a new single, make sure you leak for a month
Treat yo' face like a buffet, and tell my niggaz, eat whachu want
You'ono nuthin' about puttin' a couple hundred thousand on the table
And tell yo niggaz, keep whachu want
It's usually hate or somethin' stupid that a nigga die for
So whachu think we outside for?
So I'm outside of da club and you think I'm a punk
So I go to my loaded tech nine that's off in the trunk
I told that motherfucker, I ain't never scared

Don't stop, get it, get it, bitches betta get up on it

Sit up on it shawty, get up on it

See when I spit up on it, shit up all over niggaz like a Harley pick up

When I throw a get up on it

Big up, all of my niggaz that ain't scared of the hustle

Throw anotha mill up on it

I'ma cop a lotta land and I'ma cop a mountain and throw a lil' crib up on it

Yes, I'll eat yo' food and you know I'm gonna chow down

Mothafucka, all yo niggaz betta bow down

Mothafucka, 'fore I have to come and pow wow

Oh, fucka, I ain't playin' witcha

So I let my niggaz touch ya, it's a must and we gotta rush ya

Shatter bones in yo' body, when I bust, I holla Bone Crusher

Let me spell it out for you homie, I hope you came prepared

'Cuz I don't care if you live or phony, 'cuz we ain't neva scared

Flipmode and the Dirty South niggaz know whussup

'Cuz we got you open dude

Fuck that, make a lil' sucka nigga, fallin' back

Layin' stiffer than frozen food

Two stop me means you have to shoot me

Get cake and a bag of groupies

Oh, watch niggaz acknowledge the general and all salute me

So I'm outside of da club and you think I'm a punk

So I go to my loaded tech nine that's off in the trunk
