Watch Your Back

Dropkick Murphys

Everybody's talking about revolution
Everybody's talking about smash the state
Sounds to me like the final solution
Left wing, right wing, full of hate
We don't wanna fight
Because you tell us to
So watch your back when you attack
'Cause we might just turn on you

Things get worse with every hour
The future fades into the past
All they want is total power
Climbing on the backs of the working class
We don't wanna be part of no new religion
We don't wanna be part of a political dream
We just wanna get on living our lives
