The Forest Lullaby

Galadriel

The forest is within me and I am in
I'm the birds' singing above my head
And the wind what sleeps
In crowns of treesI've noticed her strange dance of a nakedness
Just green ornaments
Ornaments on her face
Twinkling in the glare of a blaze"The nature adducted me in her lab, I'm her daughter
Singing of the birds is my lullaby
The rustling leaves of the trees, it's my heartbeat"I lie down face to the Earth
I blur it on my body
Just a dense rain drums against
My skin in the rhythm of primeval
